

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Robert E. (Bob) Locke, great grandson of Flandreau pioneers, spent nearly all of his 80 years in the community of Flandreau; and,

Whereas, Bob, upon return from the service, went into the Real Estate and Insurance business with his father in 1956 as part of Locke Agency; and,

Whereas, Bob bought out his father and continued in that business for a total of 55 straight years serving the people of Flandreau for their Insurance, Real Estate, and Tax Preparation needs; and,

Whereas, Bob was very involved and instrumental in the promoting and developing of housing and commercial businesses in the community of Flandreau through those years; and,

Whereas, Bob was active in the Boy Scouts, as a member and leader of the 2nd Presbyterian Church, the Community Golf Course, and other civic organizations through the years; and,

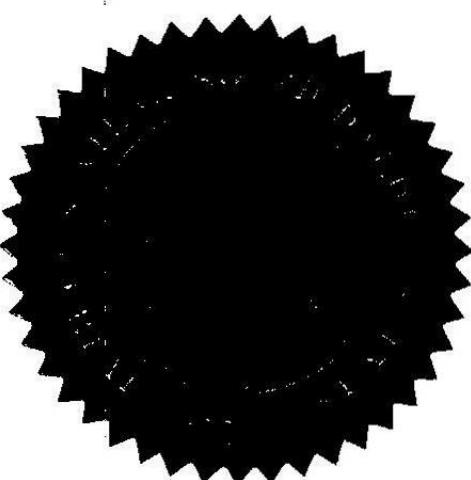

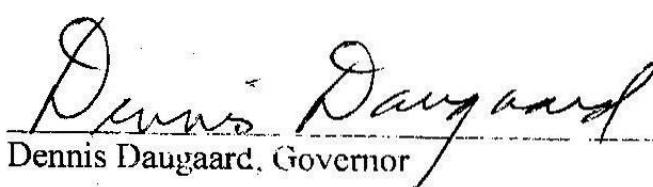

Whereas, Many people depended on Bob for help, in addition to their needs from his business, for financial advice, and in managing of their funds for those who needed help:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 6, 2012, as in South Dakota.

ROBERT LOCKE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of December the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State